FOIAb3b

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR:

1. This memorandum is for information only.
2. Herewith the following clippings:
 - a. Joseph Alsop column, July 30, 1958, which is the basic one regarding how many ICBM's the U.S.S.R. will have, compared with those of the United States in 1959, 1960, etc.
 - b. "The Growing Missile Gap," by General Thomas R. Phillips in the REPORTER, January 8, 1959, which repeats the Alsop figures and goes into other data on the so-called missile gap.
 - c. The January 7, 1959 Alsop column lauding Phillips's article and referring to an article in the January issue of FOREIGN AFFAIRS by Albert Wohlstetter of the Rand Corporation.
 - d. Wohlstetter's article from FOREIGN AFFAIRS of January, 1959.
 - e. Chalmers Roberts's news story of December 28, 1958, quoting revelations by 25X1A9a 25X1A9a to the American Association for the Advancement of Science, 25X1A9a giving Rand Corporation reports as the source for the number of intercontinental ballistics missiles the Soviet Union will have this year, etc.
- 25X1A9a 3. 25X1A9a is the son of an Army officer. He is head of the Foreign Affairs division, legislative reference service, Library of Congress, servicing mainly the Foreign Affairs Committee of the House and Senate, as well as other committees on matters involving international relations or foreign affairs. 25X1A9a was graduated from West Point in 1940 and served with OSS in the India-Burma area. He resigned from the Army after the war and received a Ph.D. at Yale. He then served in the Center for International Studies at Princeton. I believe that he may have been a student at Yale under Sherman Kent. [REDACTED] is said to be very strong for the Mansfield resolution to have a watchdog committee for the CIA.

25X1A9a His latest book, "[REDACTED]" stated in its advertising that he had served "with the CIA in Washington." In the preface to this book he thanks, among others, for assistance, [REDACTED] 25X1A9a 25X1A9a Sherman Kent, [REDACTED] 25X1A9a and others who are or have been with CIA. A copy of a review of [REDACTED] book by this office is attached.
